

Newbie in Sweden?

At Uppsala International Hub we help you get settled and thrive in Uppsala! We love our region and are excited for you to join our international community.

Welcome to Uppsala!

Our services include:

- Set Up – we help you get a bank account, find housing, and answer any other questions you may have
- Info Up – we offer informational events to help you navigate Swedish systems and bureaucracy
- Skill Up – we provide career development opportunities for individuals and their accompanying partners
- Meet Up – we organize social events to help you develop a network, make friends, and integrate into society.

Our website, internationalhub.uppsala.se is your guide to making Uppsala your new home, whether you're settling here for a short while or here to stay, came alone or with family. There we provide guidance such as how to get around, learn Swedish, and obtain a driving licence as well information about studying in Uppsala, schools for international families, and upcoming events you can join!
