
Terms and conditions Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility (ICM) Incoming Teachers and Staff

1. The main difference between Teacher exchange and Staff exchange:
Teacher exchange means that you have to teach at your host university for a minimum of 8 hours per week. Staff training does not have to include teaching.
This means that Teachers can go on Staff exchange if their main purpose is to do professional training, rather than teaching.
2. Teacher and staff exchanges to Uppsala University are often 7-12 days and in addition applicants can get the grant for 2 travel days. At the website you'll find a list of universities and the number of days, <https://mp.uu.se/c/perm/link?p=390200234> alt. <https://mp.uu.se/web/info/undervisa/utbyte/incomingstaffmobility>
3. The grants are EUR 180 per day in Sweden and for 2 additional travel days.
4. You book and pay your ticket to Sweden. Upon arrival in Uppsala you will receive a Travel grant. If you are not able to book and pay or ticket, please contact erasmus@uu.se
5. The applicant or the applicant's home university have to cover costs to and from the airports and any visa costs (if applicable).
6. Unfortunately Uppsala University cannot arrange accommodation for anybody but we will recommend suitable hotels.
7. All visits have to take place by June 30, 2020 or June 30, 2022. Please see list on the website, <https://mp.uu.se/c/perm/link?p=390200234> alt. <https://mp.uu.se/web/info/undervisa/utbyte/incomingstaffmobility>
8. If you are unable to use your grant, you are obliged to inform the International Office as soon as possible.
9. Visiting staff are expected to work and be present at the workplace five full days a week (Monday-Friday). Uppsala University is an informal and non-hierarchical workplace. You are expected to conduct your work independently, meet deadlines and attend and be on time for meetings.
10. Visiting teachers are required to teach (lectures, seminars or tutoring) at least 8 hours per week.
11. The working languages are Swedish and English. Swedish language skills are not required for the placement. However, advanced English communication skills, oral and written, is expected.
12. If you fall ill or are unable to come to the office you have to report this to your supervisor and to the International Office at Uppsala University.
