

Taking a Home Exam in Inspera Assessment

Open your browser and go to exam.uu.se

Log on in the same way as you log on to Studentportalen. This will take you to your home area in Inspera.

You will find three areas:

"My tests", "Archive" and "Demo tests".

"My tests": your upcoming exams (to which you are registered)

"Archive": your previously taken exams

"Demo test": a trial exam - use it to test how you can answer different types of question formats in the system

Choose "My Tests"

and click on the text

on the exam you are about to take (check exam name and date to choose the correct one!)

Here you find a box with the text

"Start test"

Note: If the box is grey, the exam is not yet available!

In the blue bar above the name of the exam, the time until the exam will start is displayed.

At the start time the "Start test" turns blue. You can now click the box. The exam opens and you can start writing your exam.

You are now at the front page of the exam.

Here you will find a page with information concerning the exam: E.g. grading, rules and how to reach the teacher in charge during the exam period.

Find following user interface options:

In the header you will find to the left: Your name connection and the timer for remaining time to write.

To the right: A bell: Teacher's message to you during the exam will appear here. A "hamburger" menu contains tools (language choice, spell check activation). Some options may be inactivated by the teacher - those you will not be able to change

The screenshot shows the exam interface. At the top, the header displays the student's name 'Stina Student Stina Student' and the remaining time 'Uppkopplad 4 timmar, 17 minuter återstår'. To the right of the header are a bell icon and a hamburger menu icon. The main content area shows a question titled '1(c) Pubrunna' with a sub-question 'Många studentnationer i Uppsala har pubverksamhet, men vad heter de olika nationernas pubar?'. Below this is a matching exercise 'Matcha nationerna med rätt pub' with a table of names and regions. The table has 5 rows and 5 columns. The names are Tages, Djäknen, Svantes Källare, Orvars Krog, and GHuben. The regions are GH, Norrlands, Östgöta, Västgöta, and Uplands. Below the table is a note: 'Denna fråga är av kategorin "Matchning/parning". Rader och kolumner skall matchas ihop. Unika matchningar är inte nödvändigt. Flera rader kan ha sin rätta matchning i samma kolumn, men det är endast möjligt med en matchning per rad.' At the bottom of the question area are 'Återställ' and 'Totalpoäng: 5'. The bottom navigation bar contains a hamburger menu icon (1), a PDF icon (2), a list of question markers (3, 4, 5, 6, 7), and navigation arrows (6, 7). The question markers are numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. The navigation arrows are labeled 6 and 7. The question markers are labeled 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. The question markers are labeled 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7.

The footer:

1. Index page. An overview of the content of the exam. Not present in every exam.
2. Added resources, like PDF-files or links to external resources (if needed for this question)
3. "i" = "information page". i.e. not a question to be answered
4. Here question 1c is marked, the question is currently on display. Click on any of the other letters and you will be taken to this question. Questions can also be numbered consecutively; 1, 2, 3, 4 ...etc
5. Question #2. Since it isn't on display, the underlying 2a, 2b, 2c are hidden.
6. The navigation arrows take you to the next (arrow to the right) or previous (arrow to the left) question.
7. Conclusion. The last page of the exam. Here you find an overview of the questions, which you have answered, or not. You can go back and continue to answer questions if you so wish.
