Create your account

Open Wikipedia at any page in the language you want to contribute (English or Swedish).
Press Create account (Skapa konto).

Enter username and password

When you edit Wikipedia as a representative of Uppsala University, you should clearly state this in your username by adding UU to your surname in this format: Forename Surname (UU). E.g., Olle Terenius (UU).

Before you save, check that your user name contains (UU).

The e-mail address is to verify your account and is not visible at Wikipedia.

By entering your e-mail address, your password can be sent to you in case you forget it.

Make a user page

Click on your name (in red) to get to your user page. Then click Create/Skapa (next time it will say Edit/Redigera). Insert Template. Choose Profile UU as your template.

The screenshot shows a browser window with a Wikipedia user page. At the top, the user's name "Olle Terenius (UU)" is circled in red and labeled with a box containing the number "1". To the right of the name, there are notification icons: a red bell with the number "2" and a grey bell with the number "0". Below the name, the "Skapa" button is circled in red and labeled with a box containing the number "2". The "Skapa" button is part of a navigation bar that also includes "Skapa wikitext", a star icon, and a search icon. Below the navigation bar, the page title "User:Olle Terenius (UU)" is displayed, followed by the subtitle "From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia". The main content area is empty. On the right side, the "Insert" menu is open, showing options for "Media", "Template", "Table", and "More". The "Template" option is highlighted.

Note that Chrome and Firefox usually works better than Internet Explorer when editing on Wikipedia.

Find the article of interest and click Edit write or paste your text just as in Word (Visual editing).

(You may need to click the pencil in order to enter Visual editing.)

When you save, you are asked to add an edit summary; this can be a very short description of what you did, e.g. added citation.

Minor edits are indeed very minor such as removing a comma.
