

CURRICULUM VITAE

Full Name: Hanna Maria Teresia Hodacs

Nationality: Swedish

Contact details: hanna.hodacs@idehist.uu.se

1. HIGHER EDUCATION DEGREES

- Docentur degree/ Associate professor: Åbo Akademi-University, April 2017.
- PhD in History: University of Uppsala, Sweden. Converging World Views – the European Expansion and Early-Nineteenth-century Anglo Swedish Contacts, 2003.

2. ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Current positions and responsibilities:

- Lecturer, and Associated Professor, Department of History of Science and Ideas, Uppsala University (on research leave partime until 2023).
- Research Fellow in the project “Intoxicating Spaces. The Impact of New Intoxicants on Urban Spaces in Europe, 1600-1850”, Stockholm University, Dept. of History, 2019-21, (partime 20%). Financed by HERA (Humanities in the European Research Area) Stockholm University.
- Research Fellow, in the project “Nordic naturalists as fashionistas – interpreting taste and substituting global goods with local in the long 18th century”, Uppsala University, Dept. of History of Ideas, 2020-23, (partime, appr. 50-70%). Financed by the Swedish Research Council (Vetenskapsrådet), personal grant.

Between 2010 – 2021:

Dalarna University, Subject History.

- Lecturer, 2015-20, Associated Professor, and Head of subject 2017-2020.

University of Warwick, Dept. of History.

- Research Fellow at the project “Trading Eurasia – Europe’s Asian Centuries 1600-1830 (devised and led by Professor Maxine Berg, funded by the European Research Council), at the Centre for Global History and Culture, Department of History, (employment taken up in October 2010, 2011-2013 part time, 2014 fulltime (until August 2014) when project ceased).

Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences, Center for the History of Science.

- Research fellow at the project “Social Mobility and the Mobility of Science – Swedish naturalists in London 1760-1810” (funded by the Swedish Research Council/Vetenskapsrådet), personal grant, (employment taken up in August 2011, 2011 – 2012 part time. 2013 60%, fulltime between September 2014 and October 2015, part time October 2015 until December 2015 when project ceased).

Between 2002 – 2010:

University of Birmingham, Dept. of history (2007-10)

- Part-time hourly paid lecturer at the Dept. of History, University of Birmingham.

University College London, Dept. for Scandinavian Studies (2007)

- Part-time hourly paid lecturer at the Dept. for Scandinavian Studies, University College London.

Uppsala University, Dept. of history (2003-07)

- Part-time hourly paid lecturer at the Dept. of History, University of Uppsala.
- Research Fellow, member of the project “Teaching and Learning in the Name of Science – a Study of Carolus Linnaeus and His Students”, based at the Dept. of History, University of Uppsala, devised by Åsa Karlsson, Hanna Hodacs and Mariette Manktelow) and sponsored by Swedish Research Council/Vetenskapsrådet (2003-05)
- Research assistant, Dept. of History, University of Uppsala (2002-03).

3. AWARDED RESEARCH GRANTS (A SELECTION)

Swedish Research Council/Vetenskapsrådet Grants:

- Personal research grant 2020-2023 for the project “Nordic naturalists as fashionistas – interpreting taste and substituting global goods with local in the long 18th century” (2,754,095 SEK).
- Personal research grant 2011-2015 for the project: “Social Mobility and the Mobility of Science – Swedish naturalists in London 1760-1810” (1,680,000 SEK).
- Co-applicants for research grant 2002–2005 (two and a half years, full-time research grant) for the project “Teaching and Learning in the Name of Science – a Study of Carolus Linnaeus and His Students” (4 000 000 SEK).

4. PUBLICATIONS (A SELECTION):

Monographs:

- Silk and Tea in the North – Scandinavian Trade and the Market for Asian Goods in Eighteenth-Century Europe (Basingstoke and New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2016), p. I-XII, 1-216.
- Converging World View – the European Expansion and Early-Nineteenth-Century Anglo Swedish Contact (Uppsala: Studia Historica Upsaliensia 207, 2003), p. 9–250.

Co-authored Monograph:

- Naturalhistoria på resande fot. Om att forska, undervisa och göra karriär i 1700-talets Sverige (Lund: Nordic Academic Press, 2007), p. 7–264. Co-written, with Dr Kenneth Nyberg, I have written three of the chapters (chapters 3, 4 and 5, p. 37–136) and co-written two of the chapters (chapter 1 and 10, p. 9–14, 211–215).

Edited Collections:

- Linnaeus, natural history and the circulation of knowledge, Oxford University Studies of the Enlightenment (Oxford: Voltaire Foundation, 2018), eds: Hanna Hodacs, Kenneth Nyberg & Stéphane Van Damme, p. 1-XV, p. 1-274.
- Goods from the East: Trading Eurasia 1600-1800, (Basingstoke and New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2015), eds: Maxine Berg, Felicia Gottmann, Hanna Hodacs, & Chris Nierstraz, p. I-XVI, 1-369.
- Mellom pasjon og profesjon: dilettantkulturer i skandinavisk kunst og vitenskap (Trondheim: Tapir Academic Press, 2011), eds: Marie-Theres Federhofer & Hanna Hodacs, p. 5-336.
- Från Karakorum till Siljan – Resor under sju sekler (Lund: Historiska Media 2000), eds: Hanna Hodacs & Åsa Karlsson, p. 7–288.

Papers in refereed journals, edited collections and online-publications:

- “Keeping it in the family - the Swedish East India Company and the Irvine family, 1731 to 1770”, in Special Issue: Crossing Companies: Mobility and Cooperation between Early Modern National Monopoly Trading Companies, eds: Philp Stern and Felicia Gottmann, Journal of World History, 31:3 (2020): 567-595.
- “Coffee and Coffee Surrogates in Sweden: A Local, Global, and Material History”, Chapter 4, in Locating the Global: Spaces, Networks, and Interactions from the Seventeenth to the Twentieth Century, ed. Holger Weiss, Dialectics of the Global, vol. 6 (Berlin/Boston: De Gruyter, 2020), pp. 73-94.
- “Globalizing the savage. From stadial theory to a theory of luxury in late-18th-century Swedish discussions of Africa”, History of the Human Sciences, 32:4, (2019):1-15, co-authored with Mathias Persson.
- “Introduction: de-centring and re-centring Linnaeus”, in Linnaeus, natural history and the circulation of knowledge, Oxford University Studies of the Enlightenment (Oxford: Voltaire Foundation, 2018), eds: Hanna Hodacs, Kenneth Nyberg & Stéphane Van Damme, p. 1-24, (Co-authored with Nyberg och Van Damme).

- “The price of Linnaean natural history – materiality, commerce, and change”, in Linnaeus, natural history and the circulation of knowledge, Oxford University Studies of the Enlightenment (Oxford: Voltaire Foundation, 2018), eds: Hanna Hodacs, Kenneth Nyberg & Stéphane Van Damme, p. 81-111,
- “Cheap and Cheerful: Chinese Silks in Scandinavia, 1731–1761”, Eighteenth-Century Studies, vol. 51, no. 1 (2017): p. 23-44.
- “Local, Universal, and Embodied Knowledge: Anglo-Swedish Contacts and Linnaean Natural History” in Works of Nature: Global Scientific Practice during the Age of Revolutions, eds. Dan Rodd & Patt Manning (Pittsburgh: Pittsburgh University Press, 2016), p. 90-104.
- “Chartered Companies”, The Encyclopedia of Empire, Editor: John Mackenzie, Wiley Online Library, 2016.
- “Private Trade and Monopoly Structures: the East India Companies and the Commodity Trade to Europe in the Eighteenth Century”, Special issue Chartering Capitalism: Organizing Markets, States, and Publics, in Political Power and Social Theory vol. 29 (August, 2015), p.123-45, Co-authored Maxine Berg, Tim Davis, Felicia Gottmann, Chris Nierstraz & Meike Fellingner.
- “Scandinavian Chartered Companies.” In Oxford Bibliographies in Atlantic History, ed. Trevor Burnard. New York: Oxford University Press, published online 08/29/2012.
- “Linnaeans Outdoors – The Transformative Role of Studying Nature ‘on the Move’ and Outside”, British Journal of the History of Science, vol. 44, Issue 02, p. 183–209.
- “Konsumenter, producenten, medborgaren och staten – några konsumentpolitiska perspektiv på efterkrigstiden i Sverige och USA”. Co-written with Anna Eriksson-Treter, Historisk Tidskrift, 2, (2004), p. 249–260.

Other articles and chapters:

- ”Linneansk naturalhistoria på marknaden - materialitet, handel och förändring”, Svenska Linnésällskapets årsskrift, 2018, p. 7-44.
- “Linnaean Scholars Out of Doors: So Much to Name, Learn and Profit From”, In Naturalists in the Field: Collecting, Recording and Preserving the Natural World from the Fifteenth to the Twenty-First Century, ed. Arthur MacGregor, (Leiden & London: Brill, 2018) p. 240-257.
- “Circulating Knowledge on Nature: Travelers and Informants and the Changing Geography of Linnaean Natural History”, in Travel, Agency, and the Circulation of Knowledge, eds: Gesa Mackenthun, Andrea Nicolas & Stephanie Wodianka (Münster: Waxmann Verlag, 2017), p. 75-97.
- ”Chests, Tubs, and Lots of Tea: The European Market for Chinese Tea and the Swedish East India Company, c. 1730-1760”, in Goods from the East: Trading Eurasia 1600-1800, (Basingstoke and New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2015), eds: Maxine Berg, Felicia Gottmann, Hanna Hodacs, & Chris Nierstraz, p. 277-293, (co-authored, with Leos Müller).
- “Att utbilda en älskare – naturalhistorisk utbildning i 1770-talets Sverige”, Mellom pasjon og profesjon: dilettantkulturer i skandinavisk kunst og vitenskap, Tapir Academic Press, Trondheim, 2011, eds: Marie-Theres Federhofer & Hanna Hodacs, p. 61-90.
- “In the Field: Exploring Nature with Carolus Linnaeus”, Endeavour, vol. 34, Issue 2, June 2010, p. 45-49.
- “Bland skräckslagna naturalhistoriker och oskuldsfulla bönder. Brittiska resenärer i Sverige under 1800-talets första hälft”, i Från Karakorum till Siljan – Resor under sju sekler (Historiska Media, Lund, 2000), eds: Hanna Hodacs & Åsa Karlsson, p. 226–256
- “Hedningar eller missionärer?”, Ord&Bild, issue 2, 2008.
- “Forskning och vardag i 1700-talets Sverige – om hur livet kom att te sig för några av Carl von Linnés mer okända studenter”, published by Medborgarskolan, Uppsala, 2006, p. 1–6.
- “Det civiliserade protestantiska och nyktra Europa – om nykterhetstankes spridning i det tidiga 1800-talets Sverige”, Spiritus 2002, p. 48–60.

Book reviews:

- “A contradictory encounter: Swedish missionaries and the local population in the Congo Free state”, Historisk Tidskrift, 4 (2019) p. 821-823.
- Norbert Götz. ‘The Good Plumpuddings’ Belief: British Voluntary Aid to Sweden during the Napoleonic Wars.’ The International History Review 37:3 (June 2015): 519-539. H-Diplo Article Reviews (<http://urn.kb.se/resolve?urn=urn:nbn:se:du-24732>)
- ”Svenska resor österut i ny belysning”, Historisk Tidskrift, 4 (2014), p. 721-724.
- Andreas Weber, Hybrid Ambitions: Science, Governance, and Empire in the Career of Caspar G.C. Reinwardt (1773-1854), PhD thesis, Leiden University 2012. <http://urn.kb.se/resolve?urn=urn:nbn:se:du-24731>
- Thomas Ihre, Abraham Bäck: mannen som reformerade den svenska sjukvården (Stockholm: Bokförlaget Atlantis 2012). 228 s., Historisk Tidskrift, 2 (2013), p. 307-308.
- Kristian H. Nielsen, Michael Harbsmeier & Christopher Ries, ed., Scientists and Scholars in the Field. Studies in the History of Fieldwork and Expeditions, Aarhus: Aarhus University Press, 2012. 476 s. ISBN 978 87 7124 014 6, Lychnos, 2014, p. 222-224.
- Alix Cooper, Inventing the Indigenous: Local Knowledge and Natural History in Early Modern Europe, Journal of Historical Geography, 35:2 (2009), p. 385–386.
- Henrik Höjer, Sveriges argaste liberal. Carl af Forsell. Officer, statistiker och filantrop, review commissioned by Populär Historia, 3 (2008), Lund.
- Marie-Louise Bachman, Vitterhetsakademiens bibliotek 1786–2000, Nils Eriksson & Ingemar Nilsson, Kungl. Vetenskaps- och vitterhets-samhället Göteborg 1953–2000, and Inge Jonsson, Vitterhetsakademien 1753–2003, in Historisk Tidskrift, 1 (2005), p. 155–159.
- Lizabeth Cohen, A Consumers' Republic: The Politics of Mass Consumption in Post-war America, in Business History, 4 (2003), p. 134.
- Brian Dolan, Exploring European Frontiers. British Travellers in the Age of Enlightenment in Lychnos 2001, p. 248–49.

5. PEER REVIEW & EVALUATION

I have peer reviewed articles/manuscripts for the following journals and publishing companies:

- Finnish Medical History Society Year Book,
- Bloomsbury Academic, New York
- Historical Journal
- History of Science
- Auraica
- Itinerario
- Lychnos
- Forum navale
- Journal of World History
- Nordic Yearbook for Eighteen Century Studies
- Historisk tidskrift

Other work:

- I evaluated the grading system for master theses at Åbo Akademi-University in the Spring term of 2018.
- I acted as external examiner for research proposals for the Icelandic research council Rannis in 2014.

6. TEACHING EXPERIENCES

PhD level:

I am co-supervising the following PhD student:

- Annika Windahl-Pontén, Kiär hustru, wackra barn, bodde uti ett palais: Identitet och materialitet i hushållet von Linné, Uppsala University, Faculty of Arts, Department of History of Science and Ideas (Expected date for viva: May 2020). I was also external examiner/adviser when Windahl-Pontén presented an earlier draft of her PhD (December 2016).

I co-supervised the following PhD students:

- Petter Hellström, Trees of Knowledge: Science and the Shape of Genealogy, Uppsala University, Faculty of Arts, Department of History of Science and Ideas (Viva: September 2019). I was also external examiner/adviser when Hellström presented his work halfway through his PhD studies (February 2016).
- Anna Knutsson, Smuggling in the North: Globalisation and the Consolidation of Economic Borders in Sweden, 1766-1806, Department of History and Civilization, European University Institute (Viva: December 2019).

I was the external examiner (opponent) on:

- Maria Nyman's PhD thesis, Resandets gränser. Svenska resenärers skildringar av Ryssland under 1700-talet, Studia Historica Lundensia/Södertörn Doctoral Dissertations, June 2013 (opponent).

I was a member of the examination board for:

- Anna Svenssons PhD thesis, A Utopian Quest for Universal Knowledge: Diachronic Histories of Botanical Collections between the Sixteenth Century and the Present, KTH Royal Institute of Technology, 2017 (on the examination board).

Other:

- I previewed Anna Sundelin's PhD manuscript (History) 2016, published 2018 as Expensive living and costly entertainment'. Britons as aspiring consumers in Jamaica, c. 1750–1810, Åbo Akademis förlag, 2018.
- I advised Andreas Weber and reviewed his PhD thesis Hybrid Ambitions: Science, Governance, and Empire in the Career of Caspar G.C. Reinwardt (1773-1854), Leiden University (2012). The review is published online <http://dissertationreviews.org/archives/11533> (April 2015).

Master level:

I taught MA courses at:

- Åbo Akademi-University (Master-degree programme in Social Exclusion).
- University of Dalarna (African History), in African Studies).
- Warwick University (Consumption and Culture in the 18th century; Global History).
- Uppsala University (Tillämpad teori och metod).
- I also supervised MA-students at Warwick University and Uppsala University.

Undergraduate level:

I taught undergraduate students at:

- Stockholm University (Uppsatshandledning på Historia III nivå).
- Dalarna University (Världshistoria I & II; Den globala ekonomins historia; Global miljöhistoria; Uppsatshandledning på Historia II och III nivå; Swedish Culture and Society; Migration och mottagande – perspektiv på en komplex verklighet).
- Åbo Akademi-University (Grundkurs I).
- University of Warwick (A World of Consumption, 2nd year option course; The Enlightenment, 1st year option course; Galleons and Caravans, 2nd year option course).

- University of Birmingham (A Social History of Modern Britain since 1870, 1st year option course; A History of Modern Britain since 1870, 1st Erasmus and MOMD course).
- University College London (Themes in Scandinavian History 1520 – 1950).
- Uppsala University (Nordic History; Swedish History (both Erasmus courses); Carl von Linné, summer course, Uppsatshandledning Historia A and B).
- Högskolan i Gävle (Grundkurs i historia).

7. CONFERENCES, WORKSHOPS & PANELS

Organizer/Co-organizer for the following workshops, conferences and panels:

- Panel: 6.13 Smuggling och 'den globala underjorden' i en svensk kontext: nya perspektiv på konsumtion och handel 1750–1850, at the Svenska Historikermötet i Växjö, 8-10 May, 2019.
- Workshop: Vetandets växelkurser samlingar, byten och krigsbyten från stormaktstiden till 1800-talet, 18 May 2017, Uppsala University, together with Jenny Beckman, Uppsala University, and Forskningsnoden KOM: kunskap – organisation – makt.
- Workshop: Empire's Nature. A Global History of Linnaean Sciences in the Long Eighteenth-Century, 13-15 November 2014, European University Institute, Florence, together with Kenneth Nyberg, Göteborg University, and Stéphane Van Damme, PO Universitet/European University Institute, Florence.
- Workshop: The Scandinavian East India Companies, 22-24 May 2014, together with Leos Müller, Centre for Maritime Studies, Stockholm och Jacqueline Van Gent, University of Western Australia.
- Panel: Consumption and production of silk in 18th century Europe, together with Ben March, (Stirling University), and William Farell (Birkbeck College, London), at the Economic History Conference, Warwick University, 28-29 April 2014.
- Workshop: Travel writing and multiple interpretations: A workshop using Anna Maria Falconbridge's diary, Institute for Advanced Studies, University of Warwick, January 2014, together with David Lambert and Bronwen Everill.
- Conference: Goods from the East: Trading Eurasia 1600-1830, 11-13 January 2013, Warwick in Venice, together with Maxine Berg, Anna Boneham, Tim Davies, Meike Fellingner, Felicia Gottmann and Chris Nierstrasz.
- Workshop: A Global History of Linnaean Science, 1750–1820, 12 October 2012, tillsammans med Kenneth Nyberg och Karl Grandin, Centrum för Vetenskapshistoria, Kungl. vetenskapsakademien, Stockholm.
- Workshop: Comparing Companies: New Questions for Historians, University of Warwick, 27-28 October 2011, together with Maxine Berg, Tim Davies, Meike Fellingner, Felicia Gottmann and Chris Nierstrasz.
- Workshop: Material Encounters of the East India Trade 1600-1850, Oxford, Ashmolean Museum, 1-2 July 2011, together with Maxine Berg, Tim Davies, Meike Fellingner, Felicia Gottmann och Chris Nierstrasz.
- Session: Resande och resenärer, Svenska historikermötet, Örebro, 19–21 April, 2002, together with Kenneth Nyberg.

Invited to present papers at the following workshops, conferences and seminars (selection):

- "Viewing or walking - mobile or fixed points of observations in Swedish naturalists' travel accounts (mid-18th century)", paper presented at the workshop: Knowledge in transit: Linnaeus in Lapland 1732, 28-29 November 2019, Boden/Havremagasinet, invited by Staffan Müller-Wille (University of Exeter/Cambridge) & Elena Isayev, University of Exeter.
- "Resan som metafor och praktik i 1700-talets utbildning – teologiska och naturalhistoriska exempel", together with Urban Claesson, REELS workshop, "How do we approach travel

- literature?”, 13 September 2019, invited by Christina Kullberg and Paula Henrikson, Uppsala University.
- “Atlantic coffee or Chinese tea - John Ellis the cultivation and consumption of caffeinated drinks”, paper presented at the workshop: “Enlightenment, Nation Building, and the Practices of Natural History: The Bartrams and Linné”, 27- March, 2019, invited by Markus Heide, Uppsala University.
 - “Consuming Natural History: Taxonomy, Economy and Materiality in Late Eighteenth-Century Northwest Europe”, paper presented at the workshop Stobaeus’s Cabinet of Curiosity: Emotions, “Curiosa” and Collecting in Early Modern Sweden and Beyond, Lund University, 4-5 Oct. 2017, invited by the project “Beyond curiosity and wonder – understanding the Museum Stobaeum” and Magdalena Naum.
 - ”Collecting collections – Joseph Banks and the history of natural history”, paper presented at the conference Joseph Banks: Science, Culture and Exploration, 1743–1820, Royal Society, London, 14-16 Sept. 2017, invited by the AHRC funded project “Joseph Banks and the Re-Making of the Indo-Pacific World”, National Maritime Museum, University College London, Royal Society, National Portrait Gallery, the Natural History Museum, and Royal Botanic Gardens Kew (via Sally Archer).
 - “Taste and place – a local and global history of coffee in Sweden (1740-1930)”, paper presented at Åbo Akademi-University, Global History Lab Workshop, “Locating the Global: Spaces, Networks and Interactions from the Seventeenth to the Twentieth Century“, 15-16 June, 2017, invited by Holger Weiss.
 - “Cheap and cheerful: Chinese silks in Eighteenth-Century Scandinavia”, paper presented at Åbo Akademi-University, Global History Lab seminar, 14 March 2017, invited by Holger Weiss.
 - "Silk and Tea in the North: Scandinavian Trade and the Market for Asian Goods in Eighteenth-Century Europe", paper presented at the 18th century seminar in collaboration with the Swedish Society for 18th century Studies, 6 April, 2016, invited by Marie-Christine Skuncke, Uppsala University.
 - ”Silke och te i norr - skandinavisk handel och marknaden för asiatiska varor i 1700-talets Europa”, paper presented at the Maritim History seminar, 5 Feb. 2016, Stockholm University, invited by Leos Müller.
 - “Globalizing the savage: Savagery, economy and change in late-eighteenth-century Sweden”, paper presented together with Mathias Persson, at the Research Symposium, “Knowing Savagery: Renaissance to Romanticism”, Centre for Australian Studies, University of Copenhagen, 30 Oct. 2015, invited by Linda Burnett-Andersson, Linné University, and Bruce Buchan, Griffith University.
 - ”Universitetets historia – utmanande underutnyttjad?”, paper presented at the conference Universitetshistoriens utmaningar, Uppsala, Dept. for Intellectual History and History of Science, 28 Nov. 2014, invited by Thomas Karlsohn, Uppsala University.
 - “Linnaean Natural History as a Material Culture”, paper presented at the “1700-tals noden” at Uppsala university, in collaboration with 18th century World, Liverpool University (video-linked seminar) 12 Feb. 2015, invited by Annie Mattson, Uppsala university.
 - “Domestic dyes and fashionable colours in eighteenth-century Sweden”, paper presented at the conference Visualising difference: objects, space and practice in early modern Europe, Nordiska museet, Stockholm, 10-12 Oct. 2014, invited by Karin Sennefelt, Stockholm University.
 - “On Race, Rights and Resources: Adam Afzelius in London and Sierra Leone, 1789 – 1799”, paper presented at the workshop Empire of Enlightenment, Teleborg slott, Växjö, 17 Feb., 2014 , invited by Linda Burnett-Andersson, Linné University and Bruce Buchan, Griffith University.
 - “Att bli svensk i London i början och slutet av 1700-talet”, paper presented at the 18th century seminar, 27 Nov. 2013, together with Jacob Orrje, invited by Marie-Christine Skuncke, Uppsala university.
 - “Learning collection building, paper presented at the symposium “Re:production of knowledge”, Dept. for History of Science and Ideas, Uppsala University, Oct 2013.

- “Knowledge Generation, Education and Careers – the Role of Travelling in Linnaean Natural History”, Symposium, "Travel, Agency, and the Circulation of Knowledge", Rostock (invited by Gesa Mackenthun), 5-7 Sept. 2013.
- “Contextualising the Scandinavian East India Companies”, paper presented at the workshop “The Companies: Continuity, Transition or Disjuncture? Yale University, 5 May, 2013, invited by Emily Erikson and Julia Adam.
- “Collection building in the early modern period”, Workshop, 15-16th of April, Copenhagen, 2013, invited by Brita Brenna, Oslo University.
- “Eight Shades of Blue – 18th Century Chinese Silk on the European market”, Global Perspectives on Colours, Symposium at the Royal College of Art, London, 22 of Feb. 2013
- “Trading and Consuming: East India Companies and Europe” (with Maxine Berg), Comparative Histories of Asia Seminar, Institute for Historical Research, London, 29 Nov. 2012.
- “Little Brother Carl – the Making of a Linnaean Naturalist in Late Eighteenth Century Sweden”, Workshop Re:production of knowledge, University of Uppsala, Dept. of intellectual history and science, 21 May 2012, invited by Jenny Beckman.
- “Peripheral Emporia - Selling Chinese Silk in Gothenburg and Copenhagen in the Mid-18th Century”, Leiden-Warwick Conference, Leiden, 7 - 8 May, 2012.
- “Between Metropolitan and Colonial Natural History: Swedish Naturalists in London”, Linnaean Worlds: Global Scientific Practice during the Great Divergence, 1750-1850, Pittsburgh, 4-6 May, 2012, invited by Dan Rodd.
- “Colours in abundance and bundles – the sale of Chinese silk textiles at the Scandinavian East India Company’s auctions”, Global colours: Theories, Materials and Colouring Agents in Global History, 27 April 2012, University of Warwick.
- “Att skolas till dilettant – några utbildningshistoriska synpunkter på den svenska naturalhistoriska utvecklingen under 1700-talet”, Dilettantkulturer og dilettantisme i Norden Tverrfaglig symposium, Det humanistiske fakultet, University of Tromsø, 28–29 Feb. 2008.
- “Linné och hans lärjungar: 1700-talets naturalhistoriska resande bortom myterna”, Svenska historikerdagarna, 14–16 Sept. 2007, Växjö (together with K. Nyberg).
- “Att skola en naturalhistoriker, om vänskap och vetenskap i 1770-talets Sverige”, Kunskapens vägar, Nordiskt 1700-talssymposium, University of Gothenburg, 23–25 March, 2007.
- “Natural History on the Road. Research, Education and Advancement in Eighteenth-Century Sweden”, Research Seminar, Dept. for Scandinavian Studies, University College London, 28 Feb. 2007, invited by Mary Hilson.
- “Linneanskt resande, naturalhistoriska nätverk och relationen mellan forskning och undervisning”, Fria seminariet, Dept. of History, Stockholm University, 30 Nov. 2004.
- “Att resa ut som student och komma hem som forskare. En diskussion om det linneanska resandet och hur det skall tolkas”, Historiska seminariet, Dept. of History, University of Uppsala, Feb. 2004.
- “Det svenska 1800-talet och den europeisk imperialismen – två skilda historier?”, Möte i tid och text. Tvärvetenskaplig konferens om kulturmöten, 23–24 Oct. 2000, Växjö.
- “British influence in early 19th century Sweden”, Nordic History Group, Dept. for Scandinavian Studies, University College London, 15 Dec. 2000, invited by Mary Hilson.
- “Among Innocent Peasants: British travellers in Sweden 1799 – 1850”, Interdepartmental Seminar in Cultural History, University of Birmingham, 16 Dec. 1998, invited by Matthew Hilton.

Other significant conferences where I presented papers:

- “Global goods and local – Latin-American coffee and Scandinavian import substitutes in the first half of the nineteenth century”, paper presented at the session “Re-centered science, for real?: Mining chemistry, medicine and natural history in transit in Europe and South America”, International Congress of the History of Science and Technology, Rio de Janeiro 23-27 July 2017.
- “Learning the East India trade: Transferring merchant skills across generations in the mid-18th Century”, paper presented at the session “Crossing Companies: Mobility and Cooperation between Early Modern National Monopoly Trading Companies” (chair Philp Stern), American Historical Association, Denver, January 8, 2017.

- “Asian under the hammer. The auctions of goods imported by the Scandinavian East India companies in the first half of the eighteenth-century” paper presented at the session “Consumers and Auctions in the Eighteenth Century Marketplace” (chair: Emma Hart and Jon Stobart) 14th International Congress for Eighteenth-Century Studies, Rotterdam, 31 July 2015.
- “Understanding tea from China in 18th century Europe”, presented at the session “Putting Chinese natural knowledge to work in the long eighteenth century”, 24th International Congress History of Science, Technology and Medicine, Manchester, 22-28 July 2013.
- “Selling nature with binominal names in late 18th and early 19th century – Linnaean nomenclature in Swedish and British auction catalogues”, at “European Society for the History of Science, London, September 2018.

8. PUBLIC SPEAKING, CONSULTING

- I arranged a symposium on Cecilia Vasa (Kungligheten, kvinnligheten & Vasatiden), with public lectures (live-streaming), at Dalarna university, October 2018, together with Totte Mattson and Joachim Bergenstråhle (<https://www.du.se/sv/om-oss/nytt-och-aktuellt/kalender/cecilia-kungligheten-kvinnligheten-och-vasatiden/>).
- I gave public lectures at Hagströmer biblioteket (2018) and Sjöhistoriska museet (2017) both in Stockholm, and African Days (2017) and Existensiell Filmfestival (2019) at Dalarna University.
- I have contributed to public radio (P1) Den hemliga historien om det svenska Ostindiska kompaniet, (2019), and Vetenskapsradion Historia (2003); to Axess TV (Naturaliesamlingarnas historia, October 2019), and to Bildningspodden: Ostindiska kompaniet (2016).
- I have advised Sjöhistoriska museet in Stockholm on the exhibition Resenärerna (2014), and Linnémuseet i Uppsala on the exhibition Min aldra kiäraste Broder” Abraham Bäck, vår förste socialmedicinare och Linnés bästa vän (2013).
-

9. OTHER EXPERIENCES

- Member the executive committee, later on also secretary for Balsall Heath Forum (Neighborhood forum in South Birmingham) between 2006 and 2010. I also worked as “capacity builder” for Balsall Heath Forum in the spring of 2008 (3 months full-time work).

10. LANGUAGE SKILLS

- Mother tongue Swedish
- Fluent in English
- Competent in reading German